

Anna Learis

Freshman at the University of Michigan studying Industrial Engineering

7912 Huber House
600 E. Madison
Ann Arbor, MI 48109
(484)-707-5052
alearis@umich.edu

EXPERIENCE

American Museum of Natural History, New York, NY Astrophysics Research Intern

JANUARY 2014 - PRESENT

Conducted research through the astrophysics department on star formation rates of post-starburst galaxies

Macaulay Honors at Brooklyn College, Brooklyn, NY Alumni Outreach

MAY 2012 - AUGUST 2015

Created and directed outreach programs with alumni to increase funding and visibility for Brooklyn College's honors program

Brooklyn Boulders Climbing Gym, Brooklyn, NY Assistant Director of Youth Programming

JUNE 2011 - MAY 2015

Oversaw, developed, and taught students ages five to twelve essential skills for survival and future rock climbing endeavors

EDUCATION

Edward R. Murrow H.S., Brooklyn, NY

SEPTEMBER 2011 - JUNE 2015

Graduated 7th out of 852 with a 4.0 GPA

PROJECTS

A Comparison of Radio-Loud and Radio-Quiet E+A Galaxies Presented at the 2015 American Astronomical Society conference

Collected and analyzed data from 364 galaxies using various programs

The Effects of College Debt on Political Activism Semi-Finalist in the Intel Science Fair

Surveyed and analyzed data from over 500 students

SKILLS

Much experience using:
Microsoft Office, SPSS
Statistics, SpecView, Google
Forms, Gimp

Proficient in Spanish

Experience working with and managing others in high stress environments

AWARDS

Presenter at the 2015
American Astronomical
Society convention

NYC Teen Poet of the Year
from Penguin Random House publishing in 2015

Finalist at the 2015 NYC
Science and Engineering Fair

Finalist at the 2015 Theodore
Roosevelt Speech
Competition